REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

We submit the following report:

Tannery School.

This school was discontinued for the full year as there were only two scholars to attend: The school board made satisfactory arrangements with the school board of Thornton for the schooling of these scholars by furnishing two of their scholars with schooling at Woodstock Center, thus saving the expense of maintaining the Tannery school. This arrangement in full applied to the spring term only, as one resident of the Tannery district requested to be allowed his proportionate part of the school money for the purpose of hiring a teacher at his home. After considering the matter the board decided that under the circumstances it would grant the request.

Woodstock Center.

The three terms of ten, eleven and five weeks respectively were taught by Miss Esther W. Corliss. In the mind of the visiting committee this school was a success. The register for the spring term shows thirty-five scholars. When one takes into consideration the number of classes that necessarily develop in an ungraded school of this number of scholars it is readily seen what a task the teacher has before her. Miss Corliss is a graduate of the State Normal school and her methods of teaching make the subjects under consideration of deep interest to the pupils, and should this school be graded we believe that even better results would be obtained.

Roll of honor for spring term: Newton H. Baston, Perly Merrill, Leon Merrill, Howard Sawyer, Richard F. Smith, Eugene Woodbury, Scott Woodbury,—7. The term was brought to a close with appropriate exercises on the part of the scholars, under the direction of the teacher.

Roll of honor for fall term: Eva Baston, Newton Baston, Frank Sawyer, Addie Titus, Hattie Titus, Edith Titus, Eliza Bagley, Mabel Sawyer, Charles Sawyer, Howard Sawyer,—10.

Roll of honor for winter term: Newton Baston, Howard Sawyer, Charles Sawyer, Edith Titus, Hattie Titus.—5.
Total for the year, 22.

On account of the cold weather and of the fact that 50 per cent. of the scholars were small and lived quite a distance from the schoolhouse the board thought that, in justice to all it would be advisable to close the winter term at the end of five weeks.

North Woodstock Grammar School.

Spring term of ten weeks taught by Miss Gertrude E. Kendall. One very noticeable feature of this school when visited by the committee was the good order that prevailed, something very necessary in order to have a good school. Miss Kendall is a systematic worker in the school room and her efforts were seemingly met with the co-operation of the pupils. The closing exercises were worthy of commendation.

Roll of Honor: Evelyn S. Tucker, Frank L. Carpenter, Lyman E. Cloud, Ray R. Dearborn, Warren C. Pease, Walter B. Smith, Ervin Tappan, Frank Willoughby,—8.

Fall and winter terms of ten and eight weeks respectively taught by Miss Nellie P. Bryant. At the beginning of the fall term the visiting committee deemed it for the good of the school to specifically state what should cause a promotion from the primary to the grammar school; consequently it will require an examination to enter the grammar school, said examination to be conducted under the supervision of the school board. We feel that this method will more systemize the school work in the village. Miss Bryant is a teacher of large experience in country schools and her work in the school room is characterized by discipline and thoroughness.

The winter term was brought to an abrupt close at the end of eight weeks caused by the appearance of diphtheria in the village.

Roll of honor for fall term: Willie Machell, Warren Pease, Albert Tappan, Ervin Tappan, Mildred Butler, John Wood,—6.

Roll of honor for winter term: Winnie Dearborn, Hugh Dearborn, Herman Sanborn, Warren Pease,—4. Total for the three terms 18.

North Woodstock Primary School.

Three terms of ten, ten and eight weeks respectively, taught by Miss Bertha F. Parker. This school consists of all the primary grades and about one-half of the intermediate grades and is perhaps the most important school in the village, inasmuch as it is the first stepping stone to school life. Much depends upon the primary teacher for it is she that lays the foundation and outlines the future education of the little ones. Miss Parker is a graduate of New Hampton and her work for the past year proves her to be a faithful worker and one whose efforts meet the approval of the school board and, above all, the approval of the parents. The winter term was closed at the end of eight weeks for the same cause as was the grammar school.

Roll of honor for spring term: Ernest Bell, Maurice Burney, Bernard Howland, Allie Smith, Peter Top, Edward Tucker, Eugene Willoughby, Charlie Wood, Vera Anderson, Della Goodwin, Beulah A. Smith, Beulah E. Smith,—12. This school closed with appropriate exercises, the little ones performing their parts in a creditable manner.

Roll of honor for fall term: Charlie Carpenter, Charlie Goodwin, Bernard Howland, Allie F. Smith, Peter Top, Eugene Willoughby, Charlie Wood, Vera Anderson, Eva Butler, Della Goodwin, Orissa Sargent, Madeline Sanborn, Beulah A. Smith, Callie Smith, Winnie Smith, Helen Stewart,—16.

Roll of honor for winter term: Ernest Bell, Charlie Wood, Ernest Kendrick, Vera Anderson, Eva Butler, Pearl Harris,—6. Total for three terms. 32. Total for all the schools, 72. Total number scholars registered for the year, 112; boys 66, girls, 46; average membership for all schools, 98; average attendance for all schools, 89.

The School Board feels that on the whole the schools have been a success. The teachers have taken much interest in their work and their efforts have generally met with the approval of the parents. This is a very important thing. No teacher can do justice to a school without the co-operation of the parents. It was the intention of the Board to have thirty weeks schooling but for reasons heretofore stated, it was prevented from doing so. The money left over on account thereof will be applied on the next year in each respective district. The money coming from the state this year will not be as much as it was last year and for that reason the Board hopes that the amount voted by the district this year will not be any less than the sum voted last year, viz.: $300.00. This together with the other revenues will place the Board in position to hire good teachers and have rising thirty weeks of schooling. In one case where small children lived 2 1-4 miles from the school house the Board paid for transportation at the rate of $1.50 per week. We wish that all parents would sacrifice a little in getting their children to and from school so that the school money could be used in the school room rather than on the road. The Board most respectfully call the attention of the district to the condition of the school houses which need painting inside and out and other repairs that seem necessary in the interests of future economy.

The new state law relating to high schools, which make it obligatory on the part of towns that do not maintain high schools to pay the tuition of scholars that wish to attend the same, should create in us a renewed interest in our schools, especially the grammar grades which are preparatory to entering high schools. The Board feels that it was justified in offering diplomas of honor in the grammar grades to those that attained a certain percentage in recitations and deportment. Twenty-four scholars won diplomas during the year, which we think proves the fact that with testimonial from the school board in sight it stimulates a stronger desire within the pupil to advance. Some of the teachers offered personal prizes for improvement in writing and spelling. This we believe shows the deep interest taken by the teachers and is deserving of consideration on the part of parents. One feature in particular that is deserving of special mention on the part of the school board and one that we believe is much appreciated by all, is the precedent recently established by the schools in observing Memorial day. The efforts put forward in this direction by both teachers and scholars is sure to develop a patriotic inspiration not only in the hearts of the younger people but in the older ones as well.

In conclusion the board urges still further co-operation on the part of residents of the district in order that our school system may attain a position that will command the full confidence of all, so that no one will feel compelled to send their scholars out of town unless to enter them in higher grades than we can furnish.

Respectfully submitted,
